WHY

WORK

WITH URBANY HOSTELS ?

MEET THE URBANY HOSTELS

We are a young hostel company based in Barcelona created by travellers, for travellers. We work really hard every day to offer our guests much more than a cheap accommodation.

Each of our hostels has a great team of young employees who love to take care of our customers. Currently, we are looking for an intern with a traveler soul, curiosity and a great sense of customer care.

Does this sound familiar to you?

Join our team and you will learn about the hostel/hospitality management of all operations at a human-scale company. If you want to know how does it run an hostel, this is your opportunity. If you think about working in the hospitality industry, here we are!

As we have plenty of space in our Hostels, we will be able to organize many social events for the guests and, of course, our employees can participate in them. Join us to experience a friendly and relaxed working environment with the opportunity to meet people from all over the world.

Do you want to live in Barcelona?
